CNP,

Today's PA update:

- E8 QUOTAS. Today, we embargoed E8 quotas to Navy Times and DMA in support of the E8 board convening Monday. Will lift embargo after the board convenes. Expect both a Navy mil and Navy Times story announcing advancement opportunity. (b) (6)

(b) (6) Let reporter know that the investigation is still ongoing, that we are committed to ensuring that all boards are conducted in a fair and unbiased manner; invalidating this board and convening a new board shows our resolve to deliver on that. The Navy's board process is sacrosanct - the selection board process must be a fair and impartial process. Also told him Navy Personnel Command is working to identify an appropriate time and space for conducting a new board with new membership. Link to Navy Times story: <https://www.navytimes.com/articles/e-9-board-investigation-still-ongoing>

- USS OKLAHOMA. NBC Nightly News will be running a piece on F1c Michael Galajdik TONIGHT, who served on the USS Oklahoma during WWII, and whose remains arrived in O'Hare airport today, and will be buried tomorrow. The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA) announced April 14, that the remains of Galajdik were identified and would be returned to his family for burial with full military honors. Several local Chicago news sources are reporting on tomorrow's burial as well. Casualty/Mortuary affairs coordinated w/ DPAA.

- SPICER. NPC provided releasables and redacted OMPF documents on CDR Sean Spicer to CHINFO, who is coordinating an RTQ re; a FOIA that was submitted by Muckrock, Zack Kopplin, asking for any and all available service records and other documents describing or mentioning CDR Spicer. Expect FOIA to be released and posted in the FOIA Reading Room early next week.

- NAVY TIMES COVER. There is no new Navy Times cover this week. Last week's edition will run for another week.

- WEEKLY WIRE RUN DOWN. (b) (6)

On next week's plate:

- PERFORMANCE EVAL MODERNIZATION. CNP and RDML Brown (NPC) will do an EMBARGOED i/v with Navy Times reporter, Andrew Tilghman on the Performance Evaluation Modernization System Wednesday (26 APR). Anticipate rolling out announcement of Performance Eval Review the first week of May.

Very respectfully,

(b) (6)
